On Our Way, we recall memories

which shall never be forgotten

To the students of Warren Central, we present the 1952-53 Wigwam -- a re-presentation of your life at Warren during the past year.

It is the hope of the staff that these pages that follow will provide you with many hours of enjoyment. As you leaf through the pages, you will recall those important as well as minor events of which memories will linger with you always.

We present the yearbook to you, the junior high, whose high school days still lie ahead; to you, the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors who are in the midst of your education; to you, the seniors, whom we wish all the success in the world and to all the many persons who have made our school the great institution of learning that it is.

A broad and ample road whose dust is gold, and pavement stars.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Jean W. Miers

We, the 1953 Wigwam Staff, wish to present this yearbook in memory of Mrs. Miers, who met sudden death on Christmas Day, 1952.

As our librarian and library science teacher for more than twenty-four years, she will always be remembered by the students and her many other friends. Her untiring efforts on behalf of the student body endeared her to all.

Our Guide

We wish to dedicate this annual to our friend and principal, Mr. C. E. Eash, who has directed the student body of Warren Central along the way to higher goals for the last twenty-eight years.

No matter how crowded his calendar, he was always ready to help the students solve their problems. His willingness to help, his friendliness, and his co-operation are qualities for which we will always remember him.

Our dean of girls, Mrs. Harold E. Rodden, has been our able counselor and adviser for twenty-eight years. She has always been most helpful in solving even our most difficult problems.

Leading Our Way

Ralph W. Clevenger

During his seventeen years at Warren, Mr. Ralph Clevenger has served in several capacities, but this is only the second year that he has been dean of boys.

As we traversed along our way, we always found him willing to take time from his busy schedule to help us in anyway possible.

Memories

Our way at Warren has ended, but recollections of the many wonderful times we have had will always be remembered.

For lingering with us, wherever we may go, will be memories of those days which have meant so much to us. The life-long friendships that we have made, the activities which have given us enjoyment, and the educational training we have received during our high school days at W. C. H. S. shall never be forgotten and shall serve as our key to future success.

Within these walls great frienships have

Great results cannot be achieved at once, and we must be satisfied to advance in life as we walk--step by step.

ıt is a yearbook without editors? rkinghard to meet their deadlines were ce Martin, Patsy Strickler, Barbara oinson, Marjorie Rodebeck, Martha orris, Donna Fox, Barbara Niemeyer, d Frank Geiss.

Editorial Staff

Wigwam

Business Staff

Making the yearbook possible with planned advertising and subscriptions were the duties of the business staff. Mavis Prince and Beryl Hoppes pecked industriously at copy while Judy Cass, Catherine Fisher, Jack Reasor, and Fran Aldrich discussed contracts. Doris Jones and Kathleen Sprunger were making comments on the many subscriptions.

Mr. Herrick Kesler

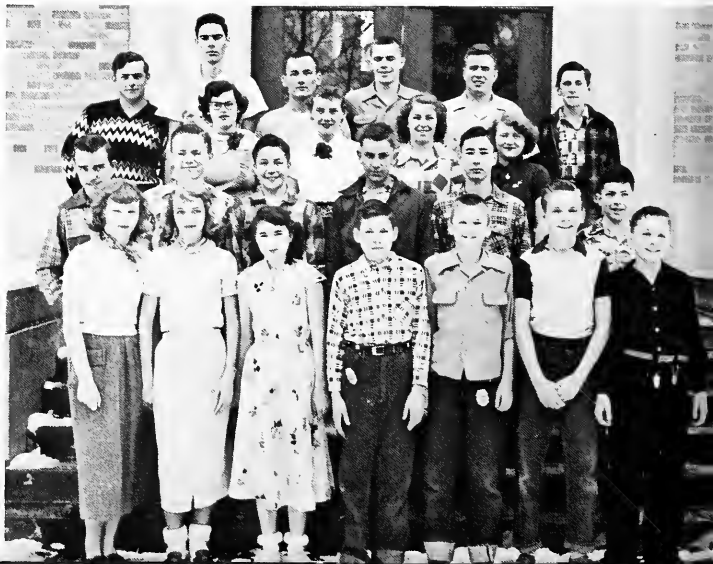
C. A. P.

The Civil Air Patrol, under the sponsorship of Mr. Dinn and Mr. Turner, was a new up and coming group at Warren. Members were, Sharon Gully, Joan Ross, Bill Byrkett, David McClure, and Gerald Boren.

Mr. John Turner

Bus Captains

Helping to promote safety and assist the bus drivers in maintaining order were the responsibilities of the bus captains and lieutenants.



Art Service Club

Jr. Hi-C Club

Mr. L. H. Snavely

Miss Lokile Hicks

Accuracy Club

Members of the Accuracy Club must type for ten minutes without error. The officers were the students having the highest speeds.

Tea Time

The twentieth annual Mothers and Daughters Valentine Tea was held February 13. This was the "big" event in the Warrenettes' yearly schedule.

"A valentine sweetheart," Janice Marshall danced her way into the hearts of all at the tea program.

Refreshments were the highlights of the fternoon. After the musical program, the mo- ıers were entertained with tea and valentine ookies in the cafeteria.

Varsity

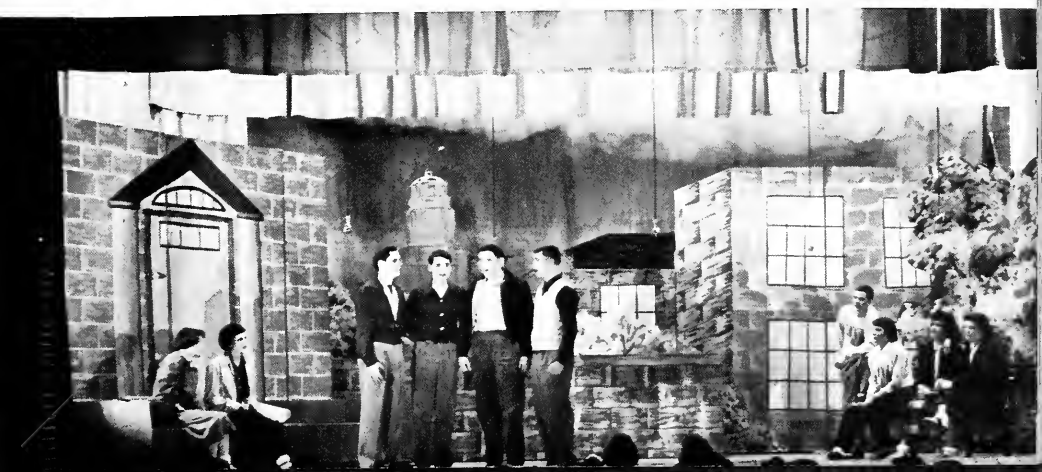
Bill and Kenny, played by Fritz Keithley and Stanley Melton, seem to be having fun ridiculing poor Abbie Frazier, Catherine Ball, in the choir production.

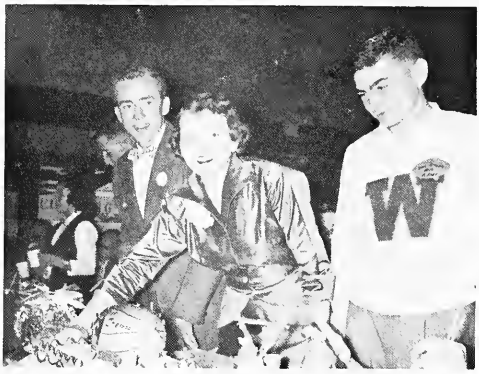
The entire cast joined in the lusty singing of "Mr. Touchdown, U. S. A." as they hailed the campus football hero in the first act of "Varsity Highlights." David Limbach portrayed the battered hero with Dick Denny and Donald Rodewald in the "supporting" cast.

Highlights

Yea! Rah! Team! echoed through the gym when the backers of the "Wainwright Wildcats" let loose with some yelling that was second only to Warren Central's Pep Club.

Cheers were not the only echos in the gym in December. This boys' quartette, composed of Dave McClure, Fritz Keithley, Bill Miller, and Kenny Lester, gave a very pleasant rendition of "The Halls of Ivy."





Cutting cake for the "Champs" was our queen, Barbara Robinson, at the football banquet.

Here was a familiar scene that many students participated in during the football season. This was just one of the many ways we backed up our County Champs.

The queen, Barbara Robinson, and her court.

Don Brune crowns Virginia Highwood as basketball queen.

"Kentucks?" No, just Warriors, relaxing after a home game.

"Flashing Dave Schmitt," always on the ball. Standing by is Bill Byrkett.

Fun time With 'Clementine'

"Just because I'm a girl don't mean I can't kick a football as far as any boy," said Gerri Sorensen to Fritz Keithley and Catherine Ball.

"That hoodlum with the football is the one that broke my window," said Sandra McCrory to (left to right) Jimmy Ray, Gerri Sorensen, Fritz Keithley, Catherine Ball, Doris Jones, and Marilyn Redman.

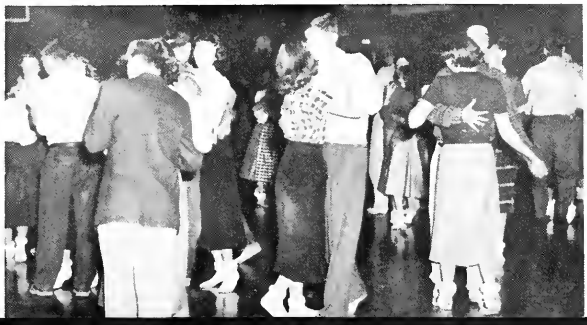
The holiday season with all its merrymaking was the climax in many a high-school girl's life.

This was a sock hop, but see those saddles?



Snaps of Little

1. Donna Fox and Robin Scheid picked the wrong place to rest.
2. Clara Free, Judy Updike, Ann Brunke, and Beverly Wells sunning at West Lake.
3. Looks as if Phyllis Reilly and Georgia Boyle are fenced in.
4. Let's hope Linda Hoff can read!
5. Notice the way these girls are stacked up. Beverly Staub, Karen Brattain, Sandy Smith, Carolyn Robinson, Donna Terry, Katy Combs, Stevie Brunke, and Linda Fitch.
6. You've come a long way, Judy Collins!
7. Sandra Martin, Bettyellen Romans, Carol Updike, Ellen Smith, Iris Thompson, Louise Simpson, Verdith Lawyer, and Pat Rafferty at a Christmas party.
8. Jane Ross, "glamour girl."
9. Bob Anderson and Sharon Voyles.
10. Margie Rodebeck, Barbara Robinson, Barbara Niemeyer, Beryl Hoppes, Martha Morris, Mavis Prince, and Doris Jones.

And Big Shots

11. Frank Collier is preparing for a long trip.

12. That must have been a good joke Joyce Martin told Marjorie Smith.

13. Barbara Niemeyer sure got wrapped up in herself.

14. Was the water too cold for both feet, Mavis Prince, Beryl Hoppes, and Martha Morris?

15. What's the matter, Sharon Gardner? Where's the smile?

16. Ummboy! Gene McRae, Gene McCollough, Stanley Melton, Don Shipp, and Leon Perkinson have Betty Grable beat.

17. Phew!! (Oh, for a breath of fresh air) Kathleen Sprunger, Carolyn Collins, Mildred Kirk, Shirley Miessen, Marilyn Fredrick, and Patsy Strickler.

18. Look at the birdie! Robin Schied, Joyce Martin, Donna Fox, and Margie Smith.

19. Little Marilyn Fredrick!!

20. Say, Vet Don Walker, you look sharp!

21. Nice legs, Barbara Shewman.

Familiar Faces

Top salesmen in the 1952 Magazine Campaign were Don King and Carolyn Hanna.

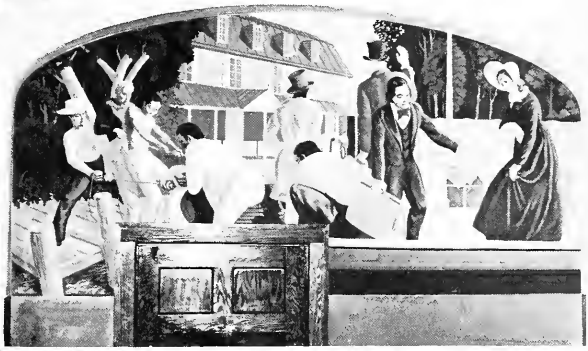
The annual Hi-Y March of Dimes presented a real Christmas spirit.

Rose Marie Huber kept the school diary.

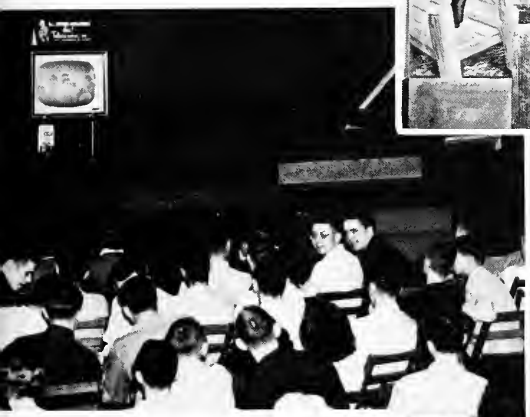
Representing Warren at the Purdue Congress were Tom Nichols, Don Walker, and Margie Rodebeck.

Familiar Places

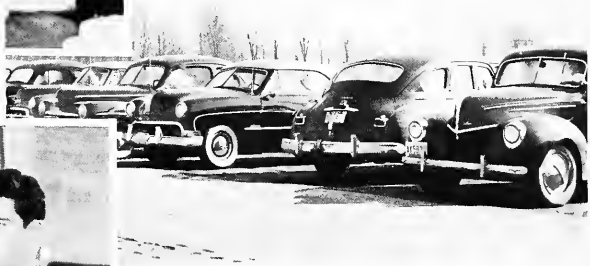
"School days." Winter and our campus.



Just added to library wall.



Inauguration Day.



The "old parking lot."

Convocations under student supervision.

Always there to answer the phone, run stencils, and come to the aid of the many teachers and students was Mrs. Jane Deer.

When you went to the bookstore, you always found Mrs. C. E. Eash there with a smile to help you.

Familiar Faces

Maintaining records of the students' health was only part of Mrs. Alma Taylor's job of keeping daily vigilance in the nurse's office.

Seeing that the school was kept in tip-top condition throughout the year was attributed to the fine supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Brim.

The Janitors are Andy Cook, Guy Sandy, Ross Burget, Ralph Davis, Webb Gilstrap, and Gus Pantle.

The Cooks are Mrs. Esther Myers, Mrs. Katherine Turner, Miss Geneva Miller, Mrs. Mary Von Speckelsen, Mrs. Mae Brown, and Mrs. Katherine Rusche.

Indispensable Mrs. Ina Scott.

Head Mentor

Vaughn Wood
258-38 = 3 20 Dif

When Vaughn Wood took over the head coaching reins in 1943 he never dreamed that he would reach the highest achievement a coach and team can obtain, an undefeated season. Mr. Wood came to Warren in 1932 after he was graduated from Indiana State Teachers College.

He was baseball and assistant basketball coach until 1937 when he took a job in Indianapolis. During his absence from 1937-39 he also coached at Monroe High School in Ohio.

"Outstanding team spirit, more coachable, willing to sacrifice, and working excellent as a unit all were main factors in the successful season," Mr. Wood said.

During his tenure at Warren he has compiled a very fine record; in 1943 he won six and lost three games, 1944 a co-county championship, 1945 county championship, and 1952 undefeated and county championship.

He said that his '45 ball club was his second best team. They lost one game, but had less depth.

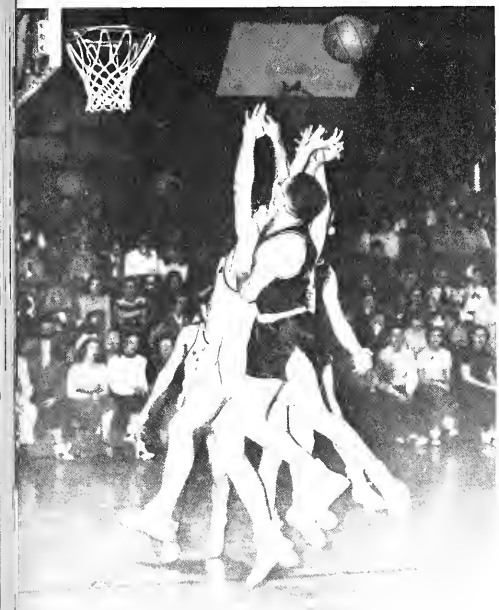
Big Chief

Carl Braden, varsity coach, came to Warren in 1951 with three years' coaching experience. He said, "That defense is hardest to teach boys." When he was in high school he played in the finals of the state tourney. The team was hampered by poor shooting averages and the tendency to lose a lead in the final period.

Wishful Thinking



A mad scramble for the ball beneath the Warren bucket during the Lawrence game.

Warren's Harvey Hodgin, 22, gets off a shot despite the Beech Grove arm draped on his shoulder. Jim Fish prepares to rebound the shot.

Watchful Waiting

Harvey Hodgin partially blocks a Manual shot. Cedric Ransom, 25, Alan Sanders, 33, and Jack Merrill, right, hold their breath waiting for the result.
